24H helpline for psychiatric services

PTI | 08:10 PM, Oct 12, 2011

New Delhi, Oct 12 (PTI) A round the clock helpline for providing psychiatric services to people in the city was launched by Chief Minister Sheila Dikshit. By calling the helpline number 1860 266 2345, people will get assistance and support relating psychiatric and mental health related problems. The helpline has been set up by Vandrevala Foundation which has been providing similar services in several other cities of the country. "The Delhi helpline is part of our mission to provide assistance to a larger number of patients," said Arun John, Executive Vice President of the foundation.
